ACTIVITY : Beejotsav was initiated in 2013 by a collective of organic farmers, social activists, and conscious consumers in Vidarbha. The concept is rooted in its name, which signifies a celebration of seeds. Beejotsav embodies the belief that the journey toward poison-free farming begins with seeds. Preserving pure indigenous seeds is crucial, as recreating them once lost is nearly impossible. For 13 years, this platform has provided great stability and reliability. Around 2000 farmers and thousands of consumers have benefited from it. The most significant outcome has been the confidence-building of organic farmers and seed savers.
